Green Teen Video Contest and the 2nd annual Youth Environment Summit (YES)

The Green Teen Video Contest is a youth produced video competition for youth aged 12 to 18 designed to connect teens from around the region and world, so that they can share and develop their visions for a sustainable future. This is a contest in conjunction with the Youth Environment Summit held at the Arizona-Sonora Desert Museum.

- All entries must be original work and must be produced by youth ages 12-18. Assistance from professional video companies is not permitted. The only exception being that teens may receive training from Access Tucson through FREE film making workshops. To find out more about these workshops and the GREEN TEEN video contest, go to www.desertmuseum.org/YES
- Films may not contain any copyrighted or trademarked materials including; but not limited to: photograph likenesses of or references to celebrities or known persons alive or dead, recorded music, published works from books, magazines, newspapers, plays, song lyrics, scripts, essays, articles, web site content, or clips from television programs or movies, sports footage, official logos of any organization, existing artwork or graphic design.
- Videos must be clean. No violence, profanity, nudity, or sex. No portrayals of anyone under the age of 21 drinking, smoking or using drugs. No direct attacks on individuals or organizations.
- Entries cannot use copyrighted music. Only original or uncopyrighted music may be used. Any supporting data used in your video, such as statistics, quotations and facts, must be true, accurate and reliable.
- By submitting a video to this contest, you grant the Arizona-Sonora Desert Museum and Access Tucson a royalty-free license to copy, distribute, modify, display and perform publicly and otherwise use, and authorize others to use, your video for any educational purpose throughout the world or in any media.
